

Illinois Statutes, Standards and Ethics Seminar

Wednesday, October 13, 2010

SPONSERED BY THE NE CHAPTER OF THE IPLSA

NIU Outreach Center, Naperville, Illinois

Seminar Presenter:

Milton E. Denny is a registered surveyor in seven states, and a veteran of surveying, mapping and GIS. His special interest has always been in project development and management of firms. He is a past president of the Alabama Society of Professional Land Surveyors, a Fellow in the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping and served for many years on the Board of Direction. Mr. Denny is the author of many manuals dealing with surveying, mapping and GIS. He is a nationally known speaker and lecturer on these subjects and writes a column called "The Business Side" for a trade magazine. He was instrumental in the starting of a new member organization in the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping called the "Geographic and Land Information Society". He served as the first president. Mr. Denny recently finished publishing a book on the history of surveying measurement call "Surveying The Land: Survey Measurement Devices 1620 to 1920". He also does a first person presentation of the Colonial Surveyor Andrew Ellicott.

Since retirement he has formed the firm of Denny Enterprise, LLC to better serve the surveying and mapping community. He is currently working at off campus locations for Auburn University teaching basic and advanced surveying for the Alabama Department of Transportation. He is available for consulting on many different issues, including Buying and Selling a Company, Business Planning, Future of Surveying Technology, and Training at both the entry and advanced level for field and office personnel.
